

Listening to God in our Everyday Life:

Seeing God in All we Do from Happiness to Heartache

MIRFIELD CENTRE

All life's experiences, however big or small, have the potential to be life giving and perhaps especially those which hurt or challenge us. We need to learn to hold on to these moments of truth, chew them over and be taught by them. As we give life's experiences the chance to speak to us we can also begin to see the flimsiness of the way the world lives its life compared to the reality of what God's way of life has to offer.
